

The environment to succeed

Information session on the opportunities available through the Irish Stock Exchange for small businesses

The BASE Enterprise Centre in conjunction with the Irish Stock Exchange and Enterprise Centre – Ireland East have the pleasure of inviting you to an information session in the Irish Stock Exchange, 28 Anglesea Street, Dublin 2 on Wednesday 7th October 2007 for 6.00 p.m.

The session is aimed at giving entrepreneurs and business managers' information on the types of capital raising opportunities that exist on the Irish stock exchange and what actions a company should take if it is considering being listed in the future. The session will cover:

1. Overview of the Irish Stock exchange (ISE)

2. The Irish Enterprise Exchange (IEX)

- What is IEX?
- Why join a public market?
- How to know when you're company is ready?
- What issues do you need to consider?
- How to join IEX
- Life as an IEX company

3. Trading

Once your company's securities are admitted to IEX, how are they traded?

There is no charge for this event but advanced booking is absolutely essential. Please complete the attached booking form and return by Friday 2nd October 2009, or e-mail your interest to info@base-centre.com with 'ISE event' in the subject line.
